Coaching Presence examines how self-awareness can be built across key aspects of coaching practice, introducing a model that will help you make a conscious and deliberate choice for every approach or intervention that you use with your client. It explores how, by paying close attention to the motivations behind every coaching choice, you can minimize the unconscious negative influences and bias to produce the best outcome for the client and their wider system.

Read PDF Coaching Presence Building Consciousness And Awareness In Coaching Interventions

I found Maria's 4 Modes of Presence Model a particularly framework to apply to my own practice as a coach, as it provides a framework to use when considering which mode of presence might be particularly useful; or as a tool to facilitate the process of reflective learning. It brings coaching presence into consciousness.
