While the cake is cooling, make the cream cheese frosting by beating together softened cream cheese and butter. Add the vanilla and powdered sugar and mix until completely combined and the frosting is smooth and creamy. Do try to avoid eating it all with a spoon right now because you need it to fill the cake roll! Assemble. Once completely cooled, gently unroll the cake from the towel and make sure it is fully released on all sides from the towel.

Drizzle cream cheese frosting over warm cake. Serve warm. For the Cream Cheese Frosting, cream the butter and cream cheese together. Add powdered sugar, vanilla, and enough milk to make a smooth, soft frosting. Drizzle frosting over the cake with a spoon (or use a ziplock bag like I did--just snip a hole out of one of the corners and add the frosting).
